Our Lady of The Most Holy Trinity Chapel

November 29th : The First Sunday of Advent

Opening Hymn: Come Holy Ghost

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest, And in our hearts take up they rest; Come with thy grace and heav'nly aid, To fill the hearts which thou hast made, To fill the heart which thou hast made

Closing Hymn Immaculate Mary

Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing. You reign now in Heaven with Jesus our King. Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria!

In Heaven the blessed your glory proclaim; On earth we your children invoke your sweet name. Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria! Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria!

Postures for Low Mass

Standing: When the priest enters and proceeds to the altar.

Kneeling: At the beginning of the prayers at the foot of the altar (noting that the Confiteor is first prayed by the priest and then by the servers, as is customary in the traditional form).

Standing: During the reading of the Gospel.

Seated: During the sermon or homily, if there is one, and during the preparation of the Offertory.

Standing: During the Credo (genuflection with the priest).

Kneeling: From the Sanctus, throughout the Canon of the Mass, the Consecration, and the reception of Holy Communion.

Standing: During the Last Gospel (genuflection with the priest).

Kneeling: For the final Leonine Prayers (three Hail Marys, the Salve Regina, and the prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel, prescribed by Pope Leo XIII).

Standing: When the priest departs.

The Epistle

Romans 13:11–14

"Brethren: Know that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep: for now our salvation is nearer than when we believed.

The night is passed and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day: not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in strife and envying: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ."

The Gospel

Luke 21:25–33

"At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: 'There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the roaring of the sea and of the waves: men withering away for fear and expectation of what shall come upon the whole world. For the powers of heaven shall be moved. And then they shall see the Son of man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty.
But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is at hand.
And He spoke to them a similitude: See the fig tree, and all the trees: when they now shoot forth their fruit, you know that summer is nigh; so you also, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is nigh. Amen, I say to you, this generation shall not pass away till all things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but My words shall not pass away.'"
